PEACE . . .

How many roads must a man walk down before they call him a man?
How many seas must a white dove sail before she sleeps in the sand?
How many times must the cannon balls fly before they're forever banned?

How many years must a mountain exist before it is washed to the sea?
How many years can some people exist before they're allowed to be free?
How many times can a man turn his head and pretend that he just doesn't see?

How many times must a man look up before he can see the sky?
How many ears must one man have before he can hear people cry?
How many deaths will it take till he knows that too many people have died?

The answer, my friend, is blowin' in the wind
The answer is blowin' in the wind.

David Crosby and Stephen Stills

we were talking—about the space between us all
and the people—who hide themselves behind a wall of illusion never glimpse the truth—then it's far too late—when they pass away.
we were talking—about the love we all could share—when we find it to try our best to hold it there—with our love
with our love—we could save the world
—if they only knew.
try to realize it's all within yourself
no one else can make you change and to see you're really only very small and life flows on within you and without you.
we were talking—about the love that's gone so cold
and the people, who gain the world and lose their soul—
they don't know—they can't see—
are you one of them?
when you've seen beyond yourself—
then you may find, peace of mind, is waiting there—
and the time will come when you see we're all one, and life flows on within you and without you.

. . . In Conclusion.

On our final deadline the editors and staff of the 1970 Inferno would like to find words to express our feelings.

It's difficult to represent every view and every idea in a publication such as this. We felt to merely show the courts, classes, and clubs would be representing only a very small part of what's really happening. We've strayed from the established norm of endless miles of trivial print and tried to relate our high school life to reality by sharing meaningful thoughts of others . . . with others.

There is so much to be said, yet there is so much we've all heard before. So, in conclusion we have no conclusion. The answers are left up to all of us.

Let's all get together soon before it is too late forget about the past
and let your feelings
fade away
if you do I'm sure you'll see the end is not yet near
. . . where do we go from here?
